Vitamins to VEGA!

21th. Nov. 2023

01

Vitamin

Starting from October, the domestic market demand for myo-inositol has decreased compared with before. New manufacturers and small factories have some supply.

02

Amino Acid

At present, the external quotations of domestic solid methionine factories are temporarily stable, and the trade market price is between USD2.8/KG. The overall market supply is tight, and factories mainly focus on shipments. The methionine market is expected to be stable to strong in the short term.

API

Shenlian Bio announced that the company's Lanzhou branch has recently passed the veterinary drug GMP acceptance and obtained the "Veterinary Drug GMP Certificate" and "Veterinary Drug Production License" issued by the Gansu Provincial Animal Husbandry and Veterinary Bureau.

04

Food Additive

Recently, the National Health Commission and the Municipal Supervision Bureau jointly issued an announcement to include 9 substances including Codonopsis pilosula, Cistanche deserticola (desert), Dendrobium officinale, American ginseng, astragalus, Ganoderma lucidum, Cornus officinalis, Gastrodia elata, and Eucommia leaves, which are both food and traditional Chinese medicine. substance.
