Vitamins to VEGA !

12th. Dec. 2023

01

Vitamin | B12 1%

Since last week, some factories raised the price, and they rise the price to USD13.1/KG this week. At present, the market trading price is still around USD11.8/KG. The price of cyanocobalamin is still relatively low, and the mainstream manufacturers are still between USD1310-1370/KG. Whether this feed grade price increase can pull the overall market price of B12 upward, we will continue to pay attention to.

02

Amino Acid | Lysine

98% lysine factory quotation slightly reduced, factory quotation is weak, 70% lysine price some users small replenishment, market end users purchase on demand, the overall transaction is weak, follow up the factory order

03

API

Apeloa Pharmaceutical announced on December 11 that its subsidiary, Zhejiang apeloa Biotechnology Co., LTD., accepted the cGMP (current drug production quality management practices) on-site inspection of the United States Food and Drug Administration from September 4 to September 8. Recently, the company received the on-site inspection report issued by the US FDA, and the inspection was passed by VAI (Voluntary Action Indicated, voluntary rectification).

04

Food Additive

Recently, affected by the market prices of L-carnitine series products rose across the board, and the transaction price of L-carnitine BASE mainstream manufacturers was stable at about USD20-21/KG. It is expected to continue to show an upward trend, and we will continue to pay attention to the market.
