VITAMIN

01

On October 15, ZMC announced the suspension of quotations for Vitamin A 500 feed-grade products. According to market sources, NHU and BASF have also halted quotations for Vitamin A 500 feed-grade in the Chinese market.

AMINO ACID

02

On October 15, 2025, Heilongjiang Chengfu Food Group Co., Ltd. announced pricing for 70% lysine, noting that the early arrival of the snow season in Northeast China has significantly increased transportation costs. The company advises customers to plan inventory based on actual stock levels. The group maintains a USD 540/MT delivered price for 70% lysine in the Shandong region to support long-term stable clients. Currently, market transactions are limited as most users remain cautious, and lysine prices are expected to stay slightly weak in the short term.

API

03

The supply of amoxicillin remains tight among major manufacturers, with earlier orders still being fulfilled. Factory quotations hover around USD 22/KG, and strong market attention has led to active inquiries and increased purchasing. Prices are expected to remain firm in the near term.

FOOD ADDITIVE

04

Chenguang Biotech Group Co., Ltd. announced that its net profit for the first three quarters of 2025 is expected to reach USD 39.15–44.23 million, representing a year-on-year increase of 344.05%–401.55%. According to the announcement, the company achieved higher revenue and gross margin from its major plant extract products, showing a strong recovery in profitability. Additionally, the cottonseed business improved significantly, turning losses into profits and contributing to an overall sharp rise in company performance compared with the same period last year.
