VITAMIN

01

As of now, Vitamin A 1000 FOB transaction prices have reached USD 25/kg, with limited spot offers up to USD 28/kg. Vitamin E 50% is around USD 10.5/kg FOB, with bulk transactions already emerging in some markets. Overall, market acceptance of higher prices is improving, supporting increasing transaction volumes.

AMINO ACID

02

Recently, valine producers have seen an increase in order intake, with trading market prices at USD 1.8–1.93/kg. End-users mainly replenish on demand, while some still hold relatively high inventories. Future price trends will depend on delivery pace and order execution.

API

03

Amoxicillin remains firm, with current prices around USD 23.43–24.73/kg. Supply is tightening, with some deliveries scheduled into May. Low-priced supply is decreasing, and transaction levels are moving upward. The market is expected to stay stable-to-firm in the short term.

FOOD ADDITIVE

04

Affected by raw material and market conditions, L-carnitine series prices remain stable. Prices are expected to remain stable in the short term:

- Carnitine Base USD 26.03–27.33/kg;
- Acetyl-L-Carnitine HCl USD 27.33–28.63/kg;
- L-Carnitine Tartrate USD 24.73–26.03/kg.
