VITAMIN

01

Major inositol producers have recently raised quotations to USD 5.2/KG, up approximately 30% from the previous level of around USD 3.9/KG. The sharp increase has stimulated market inquiries and active purchasing. Prices are expected to remain firm in the short term.

AMINO ACID

02

Lysine quotations remain firm, with 98.5% lysine priced at USD 860–880/MT. End users are mainly consuming existing inventories, with limited need-based purchases. Production remains stable, and prices are expected to stay firm in the near term.

API

03

On February 24, Zhejiang Hisun Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd. announced that it received a Certificate of Suitability (CEP) for Ticagrelor API from the European Directorate for the Quality of Medicines. The certification enables the product to access the EU market and other regions recognizing CEP, supporting the company's international expansion.

FOOD ADDITIVE

04

Influenced by recent market conditions, mainstream quotations for carnitine products this week are as follows, with prices expected to remain stable:

- Carnitine Base: USD 26.03–27.33/KG
- Acetyl-L-Carnitine HCl: USD 27.33–28.63/KG
- L-Carnitine Tartrate: USD 24.73–26.03/KG.
