VITAMIN

01

According to market sources, a major Vitamin E producer in Zhejiang is offering Vitamin E 50% feed grade at around USD 10.57/KG for limited domestic orders. Supply remains tightly controlled.

AMINO ACID

02

- Jiangsu Huaijin New Materials Technology has released the second public notice for its 5,100 MT/year bio-based and amino acid project, including 1,000 MT/year each of L-Theanine, L-Serine, and L-Histidine, plus 2,000 MT/year of putrescine and 100 MT/year of Carnosine.
- On August 18, the USITC determined that imports of L-Lysine from China materially injured the U.S. industry. Following the affirmative ruling, the U.S. Department of Commerce is expected to issue antidumping and countervailing duty orders on Chinese L-Lysine imports.

API

03

Oxytetracycline HCl demand has weakened, with current market prices at around USD 12.28–13.00/KG. As producers gradually enter scheduled maintenance, prices are expected to remain stable in the near term.

FOOD ADDITIVE

04

BY-HEALTH recently filed a patent for a composition targeting ovarian health and healthy aging, combining grape seed extract, ergothioneine, PQQ, red clover extract, rosemary extract, and nicotinamide. The formulation is designed to support ovarian function, regulate estrogen levels, and promote healthy aging.
