Weiming Taiyan, Farvision, and Harworld jointly launched a synthetic biology R&D platform at the Yinxing Synthetic Biology Industrial Park in Guangming District, Shenzhen. Meanwhile, KAI TAI and Farvision signed a strategic cooperation agreement. The platform will focus on functional bioactive ingredients and green biomanufacturing, integrating R&D, scale-up, and industrial production. Using synthetic biology and engineered cell factories, it aims to address limited natural resource availability, high extraction costs, and environmental challenges, while advancing domestic production of high-end bio-based ingredients.
