VITAMIN 01

Vitamin D3 500 remains priced at USD 13–15/kg, with some second- and third-tier brands offering slightly lower prices. Following producers' quotation adjustments in September, the market has entered a relatively stable phase. Prices are expected to fluctuate within the current range in the short term, with further upside possible if demand improves or supply from leading brands tightens.

AMINO ACID 02

According to market sources, NHU plans to raise its liquid Methionine quotation to USD 2.82/kg next week.

API 03

- Colistin Sulfate producers maintained firm quotations, while leading suppliers continued to face tight delivery schedules extending into Q4. Market prices stood at approximately USD 15.42–15.82/kg, and are expected to remain stable in the near term.
- Beiyuan Branch of North China Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd. recently received approval from UNICEF to increase the supply of Penicillin Sodium API for injection. This approval strengthens the product's position in global procurement programs within the United Nations system.

FOOD ADDITIVE 04

Driven by raw material market trends, leading producers quoted the following prices for the carnitine series this week:

- L-Carnitine Base: USD 24.14–26.82/kg
- Acetyl-L-Carnitine HCl: USD 25.48–26.82/kg
- L-Carnitine L-Tartrate: USD 22.79–25.48/kg

Prices are expected to remain stable in the near term. We will continue to monitor market developments.
